Master of Grand Lodge Declares Against Exporting War Munitions.

GIFTS FOR RELIEF MUST BE NEUTRAL

More than 830 Delegates Attend Convention to Continue Through To-morrow.

Freemasonry may be the ultimate and through which all the animosities of racial and national differences may be abolished, and thus eternal world peace established. This was the hope expressed yesterday by Grand Master dearge Freifeld of the Grand Lodge of George Freifeld of the Grand Lodge of New York State. His comment that his great fraternity of applause artially ac-the gigan r for the higher wellbeing of each in moral social and spiritual sense. His advice that munitions of war bould not be exported to Europe or the idea of a brotherhood so deep d neutral, from supplying the weapons with which more mur-all be accomplished. The com-"Thou shalt not kill' applies hose abrond, Mr. Freifeld said that fift must be neutral, and should be sent "when the season of distress is greatest, and then largely and ade-quately. It was evident from the lot-ters received in answer to our queries that such a point had not been reached in the warring countries up to a month ago," he added.

The sessions will continue through te-morrow. There are 887 delegates in standance. There will be a luncheor and a dinner to-day, both at the Re publican Club. Nearly $440,000 was publican Club. Nearly $440,000 was received for the endowment fund last

HEINZE ART TO BE SOLD

Princess Rospigliosi's Collection to Go at Same Sale.

Nine period tapestries, including a Royal Aubusson, depicting the Judgment of Solomon, are among the features of the collection of textiles, paintings and marbles belonging to the state of F. Augustus Heinze, now on shibition at Silo's Fifth Avenue Art Calleries. They are to be sold, together will a collection belonging to the Princes Francesco Rospigliosi, on the afternoons of Thursday, Friday and Sattemeons of Thursday, Friday and Satwear of this week.
Among the ministures are two on herry portraits of Eugene Beauhar-nals, Napoleon's stepson, and his wife, the daughter of the King of Bavaria. Another miniature enamel on copper. by J. Moser, dated 1793, is a portrait of Prince William Henry of England. The Chinese porcelains include several of the Kien Lung dynasty. the Kien Lung dynasty.

Belting Wins Jury.

ers, at DeKalb Avenue and Steuben Sireet, Brooklyn, two years ago, was Street, Brooklyn, two years ago, was awarded $20,000 damages yesterday by a jury before Justice Kelby, in the Supreme Court, Kings County. The jury also awarded $1,000 to Harry Haynes, the girl's father, who lives at 345 Court Street, for loss of his daughter's services. Miss Haynes sued for $50,000.

CHARITY UNLOCKS METROPOLITAN to Mr. Hedley.

Committee Overcomes All Obstacles to Sewing Girls of Paris Fund Benefit.

Godunow" was sung on the evening of April 24 it had been officially closed. To reopen it after many of the artists had sailed for Europe and others gone to Atlanta was the problem which controlled Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, at a luncheon given by Troop 2, the at a luncheon given by Troop 2, the at a luncheon given by Troop 2, the at a luncheon given by Troop 3, the at a luncheon given by Troop 3, the at a luncheon given by Troop 3, at a luncheon given by Troop 3, the at a luncheon given by Troop 3, Orden Mills four days ago. But by last night they had completed their sask, and the cast will probably be ansounced officially to-day.

It is now certain, however, that Far-Tar will appear in the title role of "Carmen" when the single after season performance is given at the Metropolitan on May 13. And the committee is also able to announce that Alda will ing Micaela and Martinelli Don José and Amato will probably appear as Estart in the descendants of nearly every race that has come to America celerate.

All of the principals have agreed to sill was dated August 7, 1914 beary is made sole executrix.

PHYLLIS NEILSON-TERRY.

As she appears before the curtain singing "Ben Bolt" in the revival of "Trilby."

ASKS VOCAL SCHOOL NASSAU SEMINARY FOR SUBWAY MEN GIVES 64 DEGREES

35 in the Graduating

P. S. C. Critic Wants Dialects of Princeton Honors 29, Besides and Interboro Guards Changed

clarly strangers in town, don't know! twenty-one graduate students, and five port yesterday. He admitted that difficulty was experienced by passengers in catching the name of stations because of "mixed vernaculars and brogues" used by the guards.

"Indistinct announcements are sometimes due to a lack of knowledge of enunciation and elocution, resulting from a lack of training," Mr. Johnson reported. "It is necessary, therefore $20,000 FOR LOST SCALP reported. "It is necessary, therefore, for the Interborough to train these men to a common standard of pronunciation and to give them some fundamental idea of how to pitch and throw 'It is necessary, therefore,

their voices."
Right there it might be said, in jus-Miss Mary haynes, whose scalp was ton off when her hair caught in an unprotected shafting in the factory of teok & Cobb, stationery manufactur-puzzling to the straphanger. As some throw," but that their delivery is often puzzling to the straphanger. As some one else suggested, wouldn't it be jolly for the Interborough to give its guards an outing, in relays, at the Tabernacle in Paterson and permit them to hear Mr. Sunday "put it over the plater."

Continuing, Mr. Johnson suggested to Manager Hedley of the Interborough "a simple rule of enunciation that is highly effective."

"Let your men pronounce all consonants distinctly and the vowels will be archibald for the William H. Theology, to John N. Y.

"Let your men pronounce all con-sonants distinctly and the vowels will take care of themselves," he said. nmission forwarded the repor

URGES DAY BE SET TO HONOR INDIANS

the opera season at the Metropolitan is not over. Most of New York's music lovers believed that when "Boris Gedunow" results that when the second results that we will be a supplied to the second results that we will be a supplied to the second results that we will be a supplied to the second results that it is not over. Most of New York's music lovers believed that when "Boris Gedunow" results that it is not over. Overlooked.

Red Fox James, founder of the first troop of Indian Boy Scouts, and Amos One Road, a Sioux brave, were guests at a luncheon given by Troop 9, the oldest sand White Philadelphia.

Mr. James has been for several years the prime mover of a project to set aside one day of the year as "Indian Day," in which tribute should be paid to the first families of this continent. With this in view he rode his pony last fall from upper Montans to the White House in order to present indersements of his scheme to the President.

"The descendants of nearly every race that has come to America celebrate some sort of a holiday," he said yesterday. "A day in honor of the Indians has been overlooked. You may

"The descendants of nearly every race that has come to America celebrate some sort of a holiday," he said yesterday. "A day in honor of the Indians has been overlooked. You may call us savages, but I tell you the American Indians were once the noblest, most resourceful and heroic savages on the face of the earth. My people were temperate, moral and honest. They had no need of any law but that of liberty."

Other guests at the luncheon were where will be another hereign and the second of the form and the second of the second of the form and the second of the second of the form and the second of the form and the second of her husband, thirty-seven years ago, at the Union Square Theatre. This play is "A Celebrated Case," which Mr. Palmer purchased from its French authors in 1877 and had translated, and thors in 1877 and had translated, and January 23, 1878, gave it its first tion, before his gift to the hospital. piece had a career for more than a year at the Union Square Theatre. Mrs. Palmer was then Mrs. Sheridan Shook. and was present when America saw the first of "A Celebrated Case." Until last night she had never seen the piece the Empire Theatre, who was an employe of the late A. M. Palmer, made the first draft of "A Celebrated Case" in long hand. He welcomed Mrs. Palmer to the Empire Theatre last Members of the committee in charge Mr. Shea took Mrs. Palmer behind the scenes, where an impromptu reception was held for her by the principals of the company—Otis Skinner, Nat C. Goodwin, Ann Murdock, Helen Ware, Robert Warwick, Frederic de Belleville, Josephine Victor, Minna Gale Haynes, Eugene O'Brien and Beverly Sitgreaves.

NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Mr. Shea took Mrs. Palmer behind the scenes, invited and which is expected to be a notable gathering to the memory of the sculptor, are Frank L. Babbott, Arnold W. Brunner, Herbert Adams, John W. Alexander, Edwin H. Blashfield, Cass Gilbert, William A. Boring, Robert Aitken, Jules Guerin, Henry R. Bacon, H. A. McNeil and Oswald G. Willard. more than thirty years. After the play Mr. Shea took Mrs. Palmer behind the Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker yes terday completed engagements for their production. "Trojan Women," by Euripides, which will be presented in the open air at the leading Eastern universities this spring and will be the play given at the dedication of the municipal etadium of the College of the City of New York on May 29. In the City of New York on May 29. In the cast, which is rehearsing in different national guard armories, are: Miss McCarthy, as Hecuba; Miss Edith Wynne Matthison, as Andromache; Miss Gladys Hanson, as Helen; Lionel Braham, as Poseidon; Ian Maclaren, as Talthybius; Philip Merrivale, as Menelaus, and Miss Alma Kruger, as leader of the chorus. Performances of this play will be given at Harvard, Princeton, the University of Pennsylvania and the College of the City of New York in conjunction with "Iphigenia in Tauris." The latter play, with Miss McCarthy as Iphigenia, will be given at the Yale Bowl on May 15.

On Feider which is rehearsing in difference of the Good Are Lonesome, Editor Sleicher Tells Journalists. Columbia, Mo., May 4.—Newspapers that cater only to the good are as lone-some as a solitary tombstone in a new-lay opened cemetery, John A. Sleicher. LL. D., editor of "Leslie's Weekly," told the journalism week delegates at the University of Missouri this afternoon. Hope for improvement of the press, he said, lay in the elevation of the reader's taste. His topic was "Delusions."

On Friday evening of this week the Neighborhood Playhouse will have a celebration in honor of the birthday of Robert Browning, when Mrs. Le Moyne will give a programme of readings from the poet. Her programme will be a varied one and will include "The Flower Name," "Love Among the Ruins," "Up at a Villa—Down in the City" and "Saul," from the dramatic lyrics; "My Last Duchess," "Count Gismond" and "In a Gondola," from the dramatic romances, and "Prospice" and "Youth and Art," from the dramatic romances, in the messpaper that it must always be so. In some journals it is not so half the time and is only matis personæ.

The Messrs. Shubert have arranged

HAY ESTATE $2,057,895 Ohildren Get $2,000,000;

An appraisal filed yesterday with Surrogate Ketcham, in Brooklyn, shows that Clara S. Hay, widow of John Hay, former Secretary of State, left an estate of $2.057.895. Her three children, Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, jr., wife of the junior United States Senator from Yes York, Mrs. Payne Whitney and ness. Scotland. Paul Cumingham Melrose, Marcus, Iowa: Howard Arington Northecker, Seranton, Poun., Jones Arington Northecker, Seranton, Poun., Jones Michael States, Porto Rico Richard Cuarte Land. Colombo, Ceston; Moffatt Ross Plazoe, Brighton, Tenn., Edot Forter, Topeka, San. C. Robert McWatty Russell, Jr. New Wilmington, Poun. Newn Henry Schad, Covington, Ky., Hiram Ray Shear, Putnam, N. V. Leon Edgar, Smith, Greenshore, N. C., John Franklin Troupe, Milroy, Penn., Maurice Seal White, Philadelphia. Fellowships and prizes were awarded The George S. Green Fellowship in Old Testa-ment Literature, to Richard Charles Theodore Othen, Fellowship in New Testament and tobertson Scholarship, to John Frank-

e. Milroy, Penn. Itiam Henry Green Fellowship in Biblical to John Spencer Kennard, jr., Tarrytown,

o Gelaton-Winthrop Fellowship in Apologetics, muer Lloyd Franklin, Wilmington, Del. e Gelaton Winthrop Fellowship in Church His-to Meiwr Ulay Jacobs, Hallam, Fenn. e Gelaton Winthrop Fellowship in Didactic and inc Theology, to John Alexander Mackay, Inand Theology, to John Alexanders. Scotland less. Scotland less First Scribner Prize in New Testament Latture, to Henry Michael Hartmann, Philadelphia, ure, to Henry Michael Hartmann, Philadelphia Second Scribner Prize, to James Poliock has Second Scribner Prize, to James Poliock Richmond, Kan.
Richmond, Kan.
Renjamin Stanton Prize in Old Testament
Benjamin Stanton Prize in Old Testament
William Norris Wysham, Reland Park, Mel. The First Robert L. Maitland Price in New Testament Fragesis. to Robert Raymond Bryan, New Ylimington, Statistical Price in Harold Irria Donnelly, Wooster, Ohio.

The First Robert Raymond Price in Harold Irria Donnelly, Wooster, Ohio.

The First Archibald Alexander Hodge Prize in Didartic and Polemic Theology, to George Teisley Russ, Raitmore. Abolish the Monroe Doctrine as a Part of the same period, also excavated at Rhages. A small star-shaped plaque of its Foreign Policy." The other members of the team are Fayette S. Curtis, jr., of Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Curtis, jr., of Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Milton S. Grossman, of Cleveland, and Clinton David Results of New York. linton David Backus, of New York. Taft was a member of the Yale fresh-man debating team that defeated Syra-cuse University at Syracuse in Febru-MISS BUCHANAN TO BE BRIDE.

Miss Janet Buchanan, daughter of BABY CLOTHING NEEDED IN PARIS

Condition of Women and Infants Said To Be Pitiful-Funds Increase.

The British War Relief Association.

By invitation from Warden Osborne.

By invitation from Warden Osborne.

By invitation from Warden Osborne.

The mandolin sextet and the quartet of the Columbia Mandolin and Glee Clubs

Will entertain Sing Sing's inmates in will entertain Sing Sing's inmates in property of the prison assembly room to-morrow.

BRADY'S HOSPITAL OPENS FRENCH TEA GIVEN 'Diamond Jim' Guest at Baltimore Institute. Mrs. Palmer Revives Old Times — Attends "A Celebrated Case."

Mrs. A. M. Palmer, widow of A.
M. Palmer, last night attended a performance of a play first produced by her husband, thirty-seven years ago, at York.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer, widow of A. M. Palmer, last night attended a performance of a play first produced by her husband, thirty-seven years ago, at York.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer, widow of A. M. Palmer, last night attended a performance of a play first produced by her husband, thirty-seven years ago, at York.

performance of a play first product ago, at York.

her husband, thirty-seven years ago, at This evening Mr. Brady was guest at the hose

MEETING TO HONOR BITTER

Arts and Letters Societies to Hold Memorial To-night.

Six societies of arts and letters will join to night in a memorial meeting to Karl Bitter at Ethical Culture Hall.

night, greeting her for the first time in of the meeting, to which the public is more than thirty years. After the play invited and which is expected to be a

EXPOSES DELUSIONS ABOUT NEWSPAPERS

ly opened cemetery, John A. Sleicher.
LL. D., editor of "Leslie's Weekly," told the journalism week delegates at the University of Missouri this afternoon.

Mrs. Henry W. Taft and Miss Annie
Leary will receive with Mrs. Pierre Tartoue this afternoon at her reception to be given at 6 East Forty-sixth Street for Cardinal Farley.

it is not so half the time and is only half so all the time.

"The public persists in the delusion Into English.

Class.

Class.

The Messrs. Shubert have arranged with the Pharos company to supply them with a daily news film, beginning on Monday next, showing incidents and atting class of thirty-five received to pronounce Thirty-third Street? Complaint has been made to the Public Service Commission that subway and elevated guards call out the names of stations indistinctly. Sometimes, so the complaint runs, passengers, particularly strangers in town, don't know the complaint runs, passengers, particularly strangers in town, don't know the companion of the c the complaint runs, passengers, particularly strangers in town, don't know where to get off.

Joseph Johnson, chief of the transit bureau of the commission, who has bureau of the commission, who has been listening for several days on request to the dialects of guards on the subway and elevated lines, filed his report yesterday. He admitted that difficulty was experienced by passengers in catching the name of stations be Representatives of twenty states, and five members of the graduating class. Leon Rothier, the French basso, will be what it is until make his debut in vaudeville at the Palace Theatre next week. Mr. Rothier place T difference to the man who is a partisan in everything."

Churches and Charity $40,000 MUSEUM GETS OLD PLATE

New York; Mrs. Payne Whitney and Clarence Leonard Hay, share equally in $2,000,000 of the estate.

Eight churches and charitable organizations in Washington, Cleveland and New York get $40,000, and $11,000 goes to eleven relatives, friends and services.

TAFT'S SON YALE DEBATER

TOPES Baseball for Freshman Platform Team.

New Haven, May 4.—Charlie Taft, son of ex-President Taft, has retired from the Yale freshman baseball squad and joined the class debating team, which will meet Princeton here on Friday, arguing the negative of: "Resolved, That the United States Should Abolish the Monroe Doctrine as a Part of the Fersian Palica."

The plate is deep, with a flaring rim, and is of coarse paste. It is covered with crackle glaze over an ivory ground, and is painted with flowers and an ornamental inscription in black, green, blue and aubergine.

A Persian bowl of ivory paste of the eleventh century was sold to T. Crawford for $180. Its decoration is in blue and black, showing the seated figure of a monarch against a floral backsolved, That the United States Should Abolish the Monroe Doctrine as a Part of the Fersian Palica."

For a Rhodian plate of the sixteenth century, with an ivory ground, painted with arabesques in black, green, violet and red, the "Lotus Magazine's" agent gave $92. A Persian bottle vase, of the twelfth century, of salmon paste, covered with ivory glaze, was sold on order for $75. The total of the session was $2,359.75. The sale continues this afternoon.

Columbia Men Will Replace Movies To-morrow. By invitation from Warden Osborne

AT BUEL HOME

One-Act Peace Play and Two Short Poems Recited for Guests.

MISS PECK TO BE LUNCHEON GUEST

Society Hears Call of Country Places — Reception for Cardinal Farley.

Mrs. Clarence Clough Buel and her daughter, Miss Beatrix Buel, gave as French tea yesterday afternoon at their home, 130 East Sixty-seventh Street. A one-act play in French was given by Reatrice Wood, M. Renavant and Frederic Mathews. Mrs. Herbert Brown recited two short French poems.

Mrs. William J. Elias will give a Mrs. William J. Elias will give a STEPHEN T. SMITH.

Mrs. William J. Elias will give a luncheon to-day at her home, 226 Cen-tral Park West, for Miss Frances Peck, who is to marry Vivian H. Eglesten on June 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor will return to town to-day from White Sul-phur Springs, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew will take possession of their country place at Roslyn, Long Island, at the end of the week. Mr. and Mrs. George R. D. Schieffe-lin, who spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scribner, have returned to their country place at Morristown, Winthrop Ames has arrived in town from Boston, and is at the Lorraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Douglas Robinson will go to their country place in Henderson, N. Y., at the end of the Joseph Bussy, for thirty years a printer in the employ of The New York Tribune, died suddenly from heart dis-case yesterday morning at his home. 235 West 140th Street. He was fifty-Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Whitehouse, who were at the Ritz-Carlton, have gone to Crowhurst, their country place, at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. two years old.

Born in London, Mr. Bussy was brought to New York by his parents when he was three months old. He was educated in the public schools, and Mrs. Chester Griswold will go to Southampton, Long Island, on May 20 a son.

Mr. Bussy was a member of "Big Mr. Bussy was a member of big Mr. Bussy was a member of big Mr. Bussy was a member of "Big Mr. Bussy was a me

Mrs. Joel Ellis Fisher and Miss Vieva Fisher will spend the summer at Syos-set, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Godfrey ar rived in town yesterday from their country place at Old Westbury, Long Island, and are at the Plaza.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanderson have phur Springs, W. Va., and are at the St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coppell are at the Plaza for a short time before open-ing Birchknoll, their country home in Tenafly, N. J., for the summer.

mitted for the woman's suffrage cam-paign poster competition will be opened on Thursday and continue until May 13, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., at the Society of Beaux-Arts Archi-tects, 126 East Seventy-fifth Street.

seriously iii, and insisted that she be removed to the home of her son, Carey Livingston, 60 South Twelfth Street, Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Carey was sixty-four years old.
Her last appearance in Manhattan was at the Punch and Judy Theatre. Four ter, the sculptor and the man, under the auspices of the National Sculptors' Society, the National Academy of Design, the Architectural League, the National Institute of Arts and Letters, the Art Commission Associates and the Century Association, will be held toyears after her first appearance in San Francisco in a stock company she made her New York debut, in 1878, playing Queen Elizabeth in "Richard III" with Edwin Booth, at Booth's Theatre. Metropolitan Pays $100 for Porcelain of XVI Century.
The Metropolitan Museum of Art yesterday obtained some of the exyesterday obtained some of the exye

The exhibition of civic art by the Municipal Art Society of New York, which opens to-day at the National Arts Club, 119 East Nineteenth Street, will remain on view until May 20. Its Eight churches and charitable organizations in Washington, Cleveland and New York get $40,000, and $11,000 goes to eleven relatives, friends and servants. The trustees and executors of the estate are the two sons-in-law and the son, Clarence Leonard Hay. Mrs. Hay died April 25, 1914, at her Washington home.

Arts Club, 119 East Nineteenth Street, will remain on view until May 20. Its beat to show something of what the City of New York is doing along artistic lines in its public works. The street will remain on view until May 20. Its will remain on view until Those directly interested in the work include Mayor Mitchel, Borough President Marks, Mrs. Harriman, Otto H. Kahn, John W. Alexander and others.

The Metropolitan loan exhibition, which attracted more than twenty thousand visitors to the Municipal Art Gallery during July. August and Sep-tember of last year, is to be repeated this year during June, July and August. Such artists as Rosa Bonheur, Sir Edward Burne-Jones, Will Low, Winslow Homer and William T. Rich-ards will be represented.

leries of Miss Mary Helen Carlisle's pictures of famous gardens in Scotland and Ireland will continue until Satur- forms Jersey Hamlet Into May 1.

MEYERS, Methias, 252 West 132d st., May 1.

The exhibition at the Knoedler Gal

The fifty paintings by Frederick W. Kost, N. A., being shown at the E. Milch Galleries, 939 Madison Avenue, The collection of antique Chinese was $2,359.75. The sale continues this afternoon.

GLEE CLUBS TO SING SING

The collection of antique Chinese porcelains, pottery, jades, agates and crystals, rugs and carpets from Loo & Co., of Paris, on exhibition at the American Art Galleries, is to be dispersed to-day and on Thursday afternoon.

American Art Galleries, is to be dispersed to-day and on Thursday afternoon.

Alexander Smith Cochran, Yale, '96, whose schooner yacht Sea Call, said to be the largest in the world, was the largest in the world, was contained on Thursday, recently bought, for presentation to the Elizabethan Club, the first edition of the first Eng. lis' translation of the "Essays" of Monstaigne, published in London in 1603.

coming here to look for work at the plant, and most of two her have been to be company, only recently established, is to supply powder for some of the belligerents in Europe.

Within three months there have been to look for work at the plant, and most of them have been to look for work at the plant, is's translation of the "Essays" of Mon-aigne, published in London in 1603.

GERRIT SMITH DEAD

Won Fame as Inventor of Duplex Telegraph System.

JOSEPH BUSSY.

after his graduation learned the print-ing trade. When he was twenty-two ing trade. When he was twenty-two he entered The Tribune composing

He leaves a wife, four daughters and Six." He was also on the board of di-rectors of the Tribune Benefit Society. The funeral will be held to-morrow at

ANDREW VAN ORDEN URMY.

FRANKLIN HALLETT.

tled in Flushing, where he opened a store. He leaves a wife and one daugh-

FRANK H. BROWN.

NIXON POWDER CO.

Busy Town.

has proved a mecca for the unemployed.

ters survive him.

Frank H. Brown, treasurer of the Gerrit Smith, seventy-six years old, inventor of the quadruplex telegraph system, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edgar P. Foster, of Ocean Avenue, Amityville, Long Island, following a month's illness.

Mr. Smith was born August 18, 1838, at Providence, R. I. He lived in Astoria, Long Island, for the greater portion of his life, and married Miss Mary Ellis Spock, an Astoria girl, who survives him. He did good work as a telegraph operator in the Secret Service for the federal government during the Civil War. He was employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company for fifty-four years, retiring ten years ago Household Linens

Proceeding Great Bargains

Please send for catalogue

LONDON, DUBLIN, BELFAST MELBOURNE, ESTABLISHED 1764.

ington and other districts where ther is an equable temperature are most subject to the pest, which devours on-ions and root crops, including roots of servises a son, Charles E. Smith, of Saugerties, N. Y. The funeral will be held Thursday evening.

STEPHEN T. SMITH.

Stephen T. Smith, for eighteen years general manager in this city for the Underwood Typewriter Company, dropped dead yesterday in his office, at Church and Vesey Streets. Mr. Smith was the inventor of many minor improvements for writing machines. His youngest son, Leslie T. Smith, was with him when he died.

Because of his wide knowledge and experience he was made general manager of the company in 1897. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, for the company in 1897. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, for the company in 1897. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, for the company in 1897. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, for the company in 1897. He was sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, for the plants and root crops, including roots of flowering plants, such as the hyacinth and the tulip. Destruction of the plants infected, even at the cost of the entire crop, is recommended by the agricultural experts as the only method of fighting the spread of the nematodes.

MARRIED.

NEWMAN—ENGLE—On Saturday, May 1, at St. Paul's Church, Flatbush, by the Rev. Andrew Fleming, Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Engle, to Frank Hurlburt Newman. All of Brooklyn.

sixty-two years old and leaves a wife, four married sons, Albert, Stephen T., jr., Jease B. and Leslie T., and a daughter. He was a member of the Stamford Yacht and the Machinery clubs. He lived at Shippan Point, Conn., until a year ago, when he and Mrs. Smith took apartments in a hotel here. Notices of marriages and deaths me be accompanied by full name and addre

DIED.

Aspinwall, Bessie M. Rogers, Jennie F.
Burridge, Lee S.
Bussy, Joseph.
Kellogg, Lucia H.
Linker, George F.
Punnett, Emily M.

ASPINWALL — Bessie M. Aspinwall (née Reed), wife of the late Rev. John A. Aspinwall, May 3, at Berke-ley, Cal., in her 73d year. Notice of after.

KELLOGG On Tuesday, May 4, Lucia Hosmer Kellogg, widow of Stephen Wright Kellogg, aged 86. Funeral at her home, Waterbury, Conn., Thursday, May 6, at 2 p. m.

Eleanor Carey, an actress, died in Mount Vernon Hospital last night following an operation. A little over a month ago while playing in a stock company in St. Louis she was taken seriously ill, and insisted that she be removed to the home of her son, Carey SEYBEL On May 4, 1915, at his residence, Hillandale, Port Chester, N. Y., Daniel E. Seybel. Notice of funeral hereafter.

in his 79th year. Funeral at Litch-field Thursday, May 6, on the arrival of the 8:51 New York, New Haven & Hartford train from New York. Kind-

HAYES, Agnes, 383 East 159th st., May 1. Funeral to-day.

May 2. Funeral to-day.

Nixon Nitration Company, under the direction of Lowis Nixon, former ship- MURPHY, Mathew, 216 East 85th st., builder and Taremany man, at Millville, SHEA, Margaret, 340 West 48th st., May Walpole Bros.

Irish Linen Manufacturers

May Sale

373 Fifth Avenue, New York

BURRIDGE On Tuesday afternoon, May 4, 1915, at his residence, 160 West 54th st., New York City, Lee S. Burridge, son of the late Dr. Levi S. and Emma Frances Burridge, in his 54th year. Notice of funeral here-after.

BUSSY-Suddenly, on Tuesday, May 4.
Joseph Bussy, beloved husband of Flora Bussy. Funeral services on Thursday, May 6, at 2 p. m. at his late residence, 235 West 140th st.
Interment in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Cypress Hills.

Andrew Van Orden Urmy died yesterday at his home, 19 Weiner Place, Tompkinsville, Staten Island. He was born at Ossining, N. Y., on June 21, 1830, and was a grandson of Andrew Van Orden, who fought through the Revolutionary War.

When the Civil War broke out Mr. Urmy enlisted as a private in Company of the Company of th

When the Civil War broke out Mr.
Urmy enlisted as a private in Company
I, 12th Regiment, New York Volunteers, and later was commissioned second lieutenant. For the last twenty-five years he had been general manager of the Louis V. Urmy Advertising Agency, at 41 Park Row
He leaves his wife, a daughter, Mrs.
Stephen Scudder Vreeland, and two sons, Winfield Urmy and Louis V.
Urmy.

MRS. ELEANOR CAREY.

Church of Christ, Thursday, the 6th, at 2 o'clock.

PUNNETT—At her residence, in Baltimore, May 2, 1915, Emily Meier, daughter of the late James and Mary K. Punnett. Funeral services will be held at the Church of the Holy Communion on Wednesday afternoon, May 5, at 2 p. m.

ROGERS—At Montclair, N. J., on Tuesday, May 4, 1915, Annie Farrington
Rogers, at her residence, 82 Valley Road. Notice of funeral hereafter.

SM!TH—Suddenly, on Tuesday, May 4, 1915, Stephen T. Smith, aged 61 years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Shippan Point, Stamford, Conn., Friday at 10 a. m. Arrangements have been made to await 8:20 a. m. train arriving from New York. Interment private at Woodlawn, N. Y.

WOODRUFF-At his residence at Litchfield, Conn., on Tuesday, May 4, 1915, Charles Hornblower Woodruff, omit flowers.

MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX. DEITSCH, Edward, 151 Central Park West, May 2. Funeral private. DONOHUE, Nellie, 525 West 178d st., April 30. Funeral to-day.

Ernest Simmons Manufacturing Company, died at his home in Port Chester yesterday. He was sixty-four years old. Before going to Port Chester, thirty years ago, he represented the Rockville district in the Connecticut Legislature. His wife and two daugh-HART, Rudolph, 2348 8th av, May 2. Funeral to-day.

GIVES JOBS TO IDLE HEITMANN, William, 4408 Park Pr., M'GRATH, Alice, 228 West 18th st.

MULLEN, Charles, 454 West 81st st, New Brunswick, N. J., May 4 .- The MULLEN, Kenneth, 735 East 182d st.,

Funeral to-day. Men from all parts of the country are coming here to look for work at the May 1.